Introduction.

AMONG the multiplicity of hymn-books a new one must justify itself by presenting for the favor of the public something that is really worth while. I believe that WILLISTON HYMNS can meet the most exacting tests demanded of a popular gospel hymn-book for young people.

While it contains, as any such hymn-book must, many of the standard hymns of the church, which never grow old or out-worn, it must also contain a large number of hymns adapted to the needs of the day and set to lively though really musical tunes. Trashy words, mere jingles, should be rigidly excluded.

My knowledge of the makers of this book leads me, though not a musician or musical critic myself, to believe that this has been their aim in this compilation.

Several features will, I think, especially commend this book to its constituency. The hymns have been selected by a large number of well-known Christian workers, who have given the publishers lists of their favorite hymns, from which the final selections were made.

Several of these friends have been asked to select their six chief favorites which are indicated by their names. It is felt that many will find a new zest in singing the hymns that others have found helpful. In my own case I found much difficulty in confining my list to a half dozen, as I love many others no less.

The new hymns and those by well-known Endeavorers, and the responsive readings arranged by Mr. Poling, will be features that all will enjoy. The fact that Mr. Rodeheaver and Mr. Gabriel and Mr. Shartle are chiefly responsible for the makeup of the book will commend it to a multitude of their friends and admirers.

But the purpose of the book is not simply to supply a new collection of popular hymns and tunes, but to stir young souls to consecration, devotion and a new zeal in the Master's service. Unless this purpose is accomplished it will fail of its chief aim. But I am persuaded better things, and believe that it will uplift many souls on the wings of song and lead many to a closer walk with God and a larger service for mankind.

2 Could my tears forever flow,
Could my zeal no languor know,
These for sin could not atone;
Thou must save, and Thou alone:
In my hand no price I bring;
Simply to Thy cross I cling.

3 While I draw this fleeting breath,
When my eyes shall close in death,
When I rise to worlds unknown,
And behold Thee on Thy throne,
Rock of Ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in Thee.

3 Thou hast promised to receive us,
Poor and sinful though we be;
Thou hast mercy to relieve us;
Grace to cleanse and power to free:
Blessed Jesus,
We will early turn to Thee.

4 Early let us seek Thy favor,
Early let us do Thy will;
Blessed Lord and only Savior,
With Thy love our bosoms fill:
Blessed Jesus,
Thou hast loved us, love us still.

227 Christ for the World.

1
Christ for the world we sing;
The world to Christ we bring
With loving zeal;
The poor, and them that mourn,
The faint and overborne,
Sin-sick and sorrow-worn
Whom Christ doth heal.

2
Christ for the world we sing;
The world to Christ we bring,
With fervent prayer:
The wayward and the lost,
By restless passions tossed,
Redeemed at countless cost
From dark despair.

3
Christ for the world we sing
The world to Christ we bring,
With joyful song;
The newborn souls, whose days,
Reclaimed from error's ways,
Inspired with hope and praise,
To Christ belong.

Heaven will bring me sweeter rest.
O 'tis not in grief to harm me,
While Thy love is left to me:
O 'twere not in joy to charm me,
Were that joy unmixed with Thee.

4 Go, then, earthly fame and treasure!
Come, disaster, scorn and pain!
In Thy service, pain is pleasure;
With Thy favor, loss is gain.
I have called Thee, "Abba Father,"
I have stayed my heart on Thee;
Stormy clouds may o'er me gather,
All must work for good to me.

A triple light was given.

When man works no more.

3 Work, for the night is coming,

While their bright tints are glowing,
Work, for daylight flies.
Work till the last beam fadeth,
Fadeth to shine no more;
Work while the night is darkening
When man's work is o'er.

The joys I feel, the bliss I share,
Of those whose anxious spirits burn
With strong desires for thy return!
With such I hasten to the place
Where God, my Savior, shows His face,
And gladly take my station there,
And wait for thee, sweet hour of prayer.

3 Sweet hour of prayer, sweet hour of prayer,
Thy wings shall my petition bear
To Him, whose truth and faithfulness
Engage the waiting soul to bless:
And since He bids me seek His face,
Believe His word, and trust His grace,
I'll cast on Him my every care,
And wait for thee, sweet hour of prayer.

2 Breathe, O breathe Thy loving Spirit
Into every troubled breast!
Let us all in Thee inherit,
Let us find that second rest.
Take away the love of sinning;

End of faith, as its beginning,
Set our hearts at liberty.

3 Come, Almighty to deliver,
Let us all Thy grace receive;
Suddenly return, and never,
Never more Thy temples leave:

Serve Thee as Thy hosts above,
Pray, and praise Thee without ceasing,
Glory in Thy perfect love.

Whisper softly "Wanderer, come,
Follow me, I'll guide thee home."

Waiting still for sweet release,

Wading deep the dismal flood,
Pleading naught but Jesus' blood,
Whisper softly, "Wanderer, come,

NOTE.

To sing a gospel song too fast destroys its devotional and spiritual nature, while to sing it too slow, is to rob it of all its brilliancy and beauty.

In determining the tempo of a song several factors must be considered. Chief among these is the sentiment of the words. Every song has a decided personality which demands an individual interpretation. Two songs may bear the same metronome marking, and yet require a peculiarly different rhythm and movement.

The Leader should remember that in marking the songs in this book, consideration has been given to the demands of the melodie and harmonic construction of the music as well as to the correct interpretation of the sentiment of the words. As a rule, from three to four "beats" constitute a "hold."

RESPONSIVE READINGS.

A PSALM OF LOVE.

Selection 1.

1. If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am become sounding brass, or a clanging cymbal.

2. And if I have the gift of prophecy and know all mysteries and all knowledge; and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing.

3. And if I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and if I give my body to be burned, but have not love, it profiteth me nothing.

4. Love suffereth long and is kind; love envieth not; love vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up.

5. Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not its own, is not provoked, taketh not account of evil;

6. Rejoiceth not in unrighteousness but rejoiceth with the truth;

7. Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

8. Love never faileth; but whether there be prophecies they shall be done away; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall be done away.

9. For we know in part, and we prophesy in part;

10. But when that which is perfect is come, that which is in part shall be done away.

11. When I was a child, I spake as a child, I felt as a child, I thought as a child; now that I am become a man, I have put away childish things.

12. For now we see in a mirror, darkly; but then face to face; now I know in part; but then I shall know fully even as also I was fully known.

13. But now abideth faith, hope, love, these three; and the greatest of these is love.

2. In love of the brethren be tenderly affectioned one to another; in honor preferring one another;

3. In diligence not slothful; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord;

4. Rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing steadfastly in prayer;

5. Communicating to the necessities of the saints; given to hospitality.

6. Bless them that persecute you; bless, and curse not.

7. Rejoice with them that rejoice; weep with them that weep.

8. Be of the same mind one toward another. Set not your mind on high things, but condescend to things that are lowly. Be not wise in your own conceits.

9. Render to no man evil for evil. Take thought for things honorable in the sight of all men.

10. If it be possible, as much as in you lieth, be at peace with all men.

11. Avenge not yourselves beloved, but give place unto the wrath of God; for it is written, Vengeance belongeth unto me; I will recompense, saith the Lord.

12. But if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him to drink; for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head.

2. For the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty; and drowsiness shall clothe a man with rags.
3. Who hath woe? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babblings? who hath wounds without cause? who hath redness of eyes?
4. (All)—They that tarry long at the wine, they that go to seek mixed wine.
5. Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his color in the cup, when it moveth itself aright.
6. At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder.
7. Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that tarry late into the night, till wine inflame them.
8. Be not deceived; God is not mocked, for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.
9. (All)—For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but all that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

THE TWO WAYS.

Selection 6.

1. See, I have set before thee this day life and good, and death and evil;

2. In that I command thee this day to love the Lord thy God to walk in his ways, and to keep his commandments, and his statutes, and his judgments that thou mayest live and multiply: and the Lord thy God shall bless thee in the land whither thou goest to possess it.

3. But if thine heart turn away, so that thou wilt not hear, but shall be drawn away, and worship other gods, and serve them;

4. I denounce unto you this day, that ye shall surely perish, and that ye shall not prolong your days upon the land, whither thou passest over Jordan to go to possess it.

5. I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing; therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live:

6. That thou mayest love the Lord thy God, and that thou mayest obey his voice, and that thou mayest cleave unto him: for he is thy life, and the length of thy days: that thou mayest dwell in the land which the Lord sware unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob to give them.

7. Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat:

8. Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

9. Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man which built his house upon a rock:

10. And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not for it was founded upon a rock.

11. And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand:

12. And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it.

13. (All)—Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth; while the evil days come not nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them.

THE GRACE OF GIVING.

Selection 7.

1. Honor the Lord with thy substance and with the first-fruits of all thine increase.

2. Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings.

3. Bring ye all the tithes into the store house, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts if I will not open you the windows of heaven and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.

4. For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor that ye through his poverty might be rich.

5. Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store as God hath prospered him.

6. (All)—Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver.
